

Lesson 26

My Parents Love My Younger Sister More

My parents treat me like an adult even though I am just 12! But they love my younger sister more than they love me. When I complain to them, they just say, "You're grown up, and we love both of you." But I don't believe them. They are always strict with me and easy on her. For example, they're willing to help her with her homework, but they tell me that I should do my work by myself. They often let my sister sleep late on the weekend, and they are always ready to give her extra pocket money.

Comprehension Questions

1. How old is he? How do his parents treat him?
2. What is he complaining about?
3. Do his parents help him do his homework?
4. Do you think his parents love his sister more?

More Questions

5. Do you have any brothers and sisters?
6. Do your parents love all of their kids equally?
7. Do you love your mom and dad equally?