

Lesson 2

What Do You Want to Say?

Example

Persuade your parents why it is important to have some time to play with your friends.

18

Answer

I study hard all week, so I deserve to have some time for fun, I never see my friends any more. They are all strangers to me now. Let me go see my friends today, and I promise I'll study even harder tonight.

What do you want to say?

1. Apologize to your friend for being late for your appointment because you had to drop by the local clinic.

2.

Tell your parents you want to skip class today because you have a bad cold.

3. Advise your parents to exercise more and to eat less.

4.

Cheer up your friend whose grades were lower than expected.

Lesson 2

5. Tell your friend to be sure to carry a good sunscreen to the beach.

6.

Tell your parents you want to invite your new friend to stay at your house overnight.

7. Tell your parents your pocket money should be raised because you are older now.

8.

Tell your classmates not to give up on learning English.

9. Advise your friend that skipping meals is not a good way to lose weight.

10.

Tell your friend that you want to be an adult soon so you can do anything you want.