

Lesson 3

What Should He Do?

Example

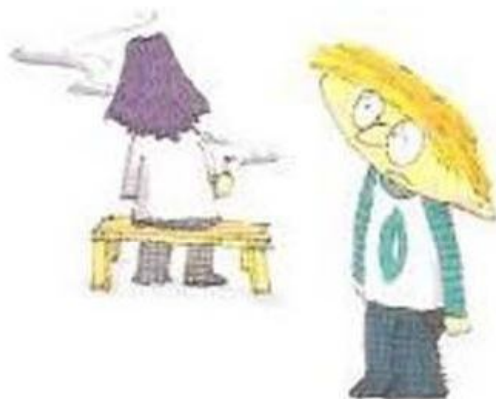

He is very forgetful. He often forgets secret numbers and passwords. So he sometimes locks himself out of his house and has to stay outside all night.

Answer

He should get in the habit of writing things down so he does not forget them.

What should he do?

1. He found out his father has started smoking again.

2.

He has had his pocket picked on the bus.

3. He sees a car hit a girl and drive away.

4.

His father is about to drive home drunk.

Lesson 3

5. He has no money, but his friend asks him to lend him some.

6.

He can't resist the desire to eat late at night.

7. Rumor has it that he is in love with a girl, which is not true.

8.

His father took away his mobile phone, saying he can get it back if his grades improve.

9. His lies to his parents are about to be discovered.

10.

He is no longer interested in studying.