

Dave: What do you want to do this weekend?

Stan: I want to go to the mountains.

Dave: Why do you want to go there?

Stan: I want to go camping! I want to sleep outside in a tent.

Dave: That sounds like fun! I want to go camping, too! Can I go with you?

Stan: You will have to ask your parents first.

- ❖ Where do Stan and Dave want to go?
- ❖ What do they want to do?
- ❖ Do you like to go camping?
- ❖ What can you see in the mountains?
- ❖ What do you want to do this weekend?

Make a sentence: You will have to _____ first.

Find the nouns in the dialogue above, and write them here:

Nouns are people, places, and things. You can see and touch nouns. If there are 2 or more nouns, you add -s to the noun.

There is a boy

girl
book
table
teacher
fan
pen

car
shirt
shoe
TV
bicycle animal pencil

on the _____.

under the _____.

in the _____.

There are

boys
girls
books
tables
teachers
fans
pens

cars
shirts
shoes
TVs
bicycles
animals
pencils

next to the _____.

by the _____.

Fix the mistakes in the sentences below:

1. There is boy in the classroom. _____
2. There is a pencils on the table. _____
3. There are many animal in the zoo. _____
4. There is a fan next to door. _____
5. There books under the table. _____

Now, look around the classroom, and make 5 sentences of your own!