

Dan: What do you want to do today, Brian?

Brian: I want to play baseball with my little brother. What do you want to do?

Dan: I want to play outside, but I can't.

Brian: Why not?

Dan: Because there is a big brown dog outside. I am afraid the big dog will bite me.

Brian: I'm not afraid of dogs! Come on, let's go outside!

- ❖ What is Dan afraid of?
- ❖ What are you afraid of?
- ❖ Why are you afraid?
- ❖ What animals can bite you?

Make a sentence: I'm not afraid of _____!

Find the nouns in the dialogue above, and write them here:

Fix the mistakes in the sentences below.

1. There is three dog in my house.

2. She is my brother, and he is my sister.

3. There are a ball in the tree.

4. They are a boy.

5. There is a pencils on the table.

6. He is not my brothers.

7. There is two cars at my house.
