

Tim: Let's ride our bicycles to the park!

Tom: I don't think I can go. My mother said that a storm is coming today. We should stay home.

Tim: Oh, come on. Are you afraid of the rain?

Tom: I'm not afraid of the rain, but I'm afraid of the lightning.

Tim: Oh. I forgot about the lightning. You're probably right. We should stay home.

- ❖ What can you see and hear during a storm?
- ❖ What are you afraid of? Are you afraid of lightning?
- ❖ Why do you think rain is good? Why do you think rain is bad?
- ❖ What do you like to do when there is a storm?

Make a sentence: My mother said that _____.

Find the verbs in the dialogue above, and write them here:

Verbs are action words.

Nouns are people, places, and things.

Read the sentences below.

Circle the nouns.

Underline the verbs.

1. The boy buys flowers to give to his mother.
2. The student has a girlfriend.
3. I forgot to bring my pencil box.
4. I will sell you a pencil for 10 dollars.
5. The girls practice English with the foreigner.
6. The man lives in Chicago, but the woman lives in England.
7. There is a storm, so I don't want to play outside.