

Brian: What are you doing, Willie?

Willie: I'm buying flowers to give my mother.

Brian: Why are you buying flowers for your mother?

Willie: Because today is Valentine's Day.

Brian: Oh, I forgot! I should buy some flowers for my girlfriend.

Willie: You have a girlfriend?

Brian: Yes, but don't tell anybody!

- ❖ Do you know anybody who has a boyfriend or girlfriend?
- ❖ What is a good gift for Valentine's Day?
- ❖ Why do girls like flowers?

Make a sentence: I should _____.

Find the verbs in the dialogue above, and write them here:

Verbs are action words.

Nouns are people, places, and things.

Read the sentences below.

Circle the nouns.

Underline the verbs.

1. He buys flowers for his girlfriend.
2. The dog runs with the cat.
3. I practice baseball after school.
4. I have a birthday present for my mother.
5. Can I borrow a pencil?
6. I hope I can go to Hong Kong.
7. David likes to save money, but his sister likes to spend money.