

Jerry: Do you think I need a haircut?

Rick: Yeah, your hair is too long. You should go to the barber shop near my house. It's not expensive.

Jerry: I don't have any money. Can I borrow some money from you?

Rick: I don't have any money, either. I'm broke.

Jerry: Can you give me a haircut?

Rick: Okay. I will borrow my mother's scissors and give you a nice haircut.

Jerry: No way! I was just kidding! That's too dangerous!

- ❖ Who cuts your hair?
- ❖ Is it safe or dangerous to cut your friend's hair?
- ❖ What are some things that are expensive?

Make a sentence: Can I borrow some _____ from you?

Find the adjectives in the dialogue above, and write them here:

Write an adjective in the blanks below to complete each sentence. (Use a different adjective for each sentence.)

1. My father is _____.
2. The _____ boy can run fast.
3. His pet cat is very _____.
4. I think English is _____.
5. Swimming in the swimming pool is _____.
6. Playing with fireworks is _____.
7. The new car is too _____.
8. I am _____.
- 9 My grandmother is _____.
10. His girlfriend is very _____.