

Nelson: What are you thinking about?

Thomas: I'm thinking about a dream I had last night.

Nelson: I can't remember my dreams. What happened in your dream?

Thomas: In my dream, I could fly. It was very exciting. I wish that I could really fly like a bird.

Nelson: That is impossible. But you can learn to fly an airplane or a helicopter.

Thomas: Maybe I will!

- ❖ Describe a dream of yours.
- ❖ Have you ever flown in an airplane?
Where did you go?
- ❖ If you had three wishes, what would you wish for?

Make a sentence: I wish that I could _____ like a _____.

*flown = fly

When you add -s to a word that ends in consonant-y (cry, fly), you have to change the -y to -i and add -es.

- Wrong: flys (x)
- Right: flies

I
You
We They

like to play
eat pizza
watch movies sleep late

every day.
sometimes.
every Tuesday.
on the weekends.

He She
It

likes to play
wants to practice piano
cries

every morning.
after school.
at night.

Fix the mistakes in the following sentences:

1. The bird flys in the sky.

2. The birds flies in the sky.

3. My sister want to play basketball in the afternoon.

4. My father read the newspaper while he eat pizza.
