

Aaron: How tall are you?

Brian: I'm 135 centimeters tall.

Aaron: How much do you weigh?

Brian: I weigh 38 kilograms.

Aaron: I'm taller and stronger than you!

Brian: I don't care, Aaron. That is not important.

Aaron: How many friends do you have?

Brian: I have two good friends.

Aaron: How much money do you have?

Brian: I have two dollars in my pocket.

Aaron: I'm richer and more popular than you!

Brian: And you're more arrogant than I am, too!

❖ How tall are you?

❖ How much do you weigh?

❖ What do you have in your pocket?

Make a sentence: I'm ____er and more ____ than you.

When you add -s to a word that ends in s, sh, ch, x, or z (buzz, miss, catch), you have to add "es".

- Wrong: washs (x)
- Right: washes

I wish	➤	He wishes
You catch	➤	She catches
They miss	➤	It misses
We tax	➤	He taxes
I sketch	➤	She sketches

Add -s or -es to the verbs below.

Don't forget: If a word ends in consonant-y, you must change the y to i before adding -es!

wash_____

try_____ fax_____

ply_____

apply_____

pray_____

win_____

splash_____

pitch_____ borrow_____ cry_____ fetch_____ hiss_____

watch_____