

Darrin: Hey! Did you see what that boy did?

David: Yeah! He threw a plastic bag into the street. He doesn't care about our environment. He's a litter bug!

Darrin: Do you care about our environment?

David: Yes, I do. There is too much pollution. Everybody should care about our environment.

Darrin: I agree.
"Hey, litter bug! Pick up that trash!"

David: Hey, look!
He's picking it up!
"Thanks for caring about our environment!"

- ❖ Why is it good to recycle?
- ❖ What things can people recycle?
- ❖ What are some other ways to help the environment?

Make a sentence: He doesn't care about _____.

Past Tense (9)

Grammar

Writing Assignment: Look at the paragraph below, "Last Weekend." This is a paragraph about what you did last weekend. The sentences in the paragraph are past tense. Read the paragraph, and then write your own paragraph, titled "Last Weekend."

Last Weekend

Last weekend was pretty fun. On Saturday, I woke up early and ate breakfast with my mother. I read a book for awhile, and then I went to the park with my sister and played badminton. In the evening, I went out to dinner with my family. On Sunday, I went to my grandparents' house with my family. I played with their dogs and we watched TV together. At night, I went back home and finished my homework, then I took a bath and went to bed. It was a nice weekend!

Now write your own paragraph!

Last Weekend

[illegible]