

Chris: Where were you on Sunday, Stan?

Stan: I was at my grandparents' house. We had a family reunion.

Chris: Did you forget about our plans to go spelunking? Phil, Mike, Bruce, and I went to explore some caves. You were supposed to join us and bring the helmets.

Stan: I completely forgot! I was busy anyways. Did you guys really need the helmets?

Chris: Of course we did! We kept bumping our heads in the caves!

Stan: Well, did you have fun!

Chris: It was an awesome experience! We plan to go again next Sunday, so don't forget the helmets!

- ❖ Who can you see at a family reunion?
- ❖ What are some other awesome experiences?
- ❖ "Supposed to" means that you "should" do something, but maybe you didn't.

➤ I was supposed to finish my homework, but I didn't have time.

➤ I was supposed to water the flowers, but I forgot, so they all died.

Make a sentence: I was supposed to _____, but _____.

- ❖ "Keep _____ing" (or "kept _____ing") means that you do something many times or for a long time.

➤ I know you're tired, but let's keep running for 5 more minutes.

➤ Pablo kept hitting me with his dirty sock, so I told the teacher.

Make your own sentence with "keep _____ing" (or "kept _____ing")

Use was, wasn't, were, or weren't to answer the following questions:

1. Where were you this morning?

2. Where was your mother this morning?

3. Where were you yesterday afternoon?

4. Where was your teacher last night?

5. How old were you when you learned how to write your English name?

6. Where was your friend 2 minutes ago?

7. Where were you before class?

8. Where was your teacher before class?

9. Where were your parents yesterday?
