

Linda: Why are you crying, Mindy? Are you injured?

Mindy: No. (Sniff) Stan was making fun of me! (Sniff) He said that I look like a gorilla!

Linda: Why would he say that?

Mindy: Because he's a mean bully! He loves to hurt other people's feelings because he doesn't have any friends.

Linda: Try to forgive him. Maybe if we are friendly to him, he will be friendly to us.

Mindy: Forgive him? Impossible! I hate him!

Linda: I don't hate Stan. I feel sorry for him because everybody hates him!

- ❖ Why do you think Stan is a bully?
- ❖ Do you make fun of people?
- ❖ Who do you feel sorry for?
- ❖ If a bully makes fun of you, will you forgive him?

Composition: Dear Bully,

On a separate piece of paper, write a letter to a bully, and tell him/her why he/she shouldn't pick on others and make fun of others. Try to use some of the vocabulary words from above.

To use the Past Continuous Tense, you need a [Past Tense Be Verb] + [Verb+ing]:

We also use the Past Continuous Tense with the words "while" or "as," to talk about two things that were happening at the same time:

→ I [past tense] while/as [past continuous]

→ While/As [past continuous], I [past tense]

Fix the mistakes in the following sentences:

1. I stay inside while it was raining.

2. William listen to music as he walking to school.

3. Amy played video games while her mother talking to her.

4. As I was taking a shower, I brush my teeth.

5. We read magazines while we eating.

6. As they eating, Lynn and Tim talked about their jobs.

7. Brian's cat went to the bathroom while he is sleeping.
