

Warm-Up

Stand up and chat with a bunch of different classmates.

- 1. What nicknames do you or your friends have for your fathers?
- 2. Think about a time when you had a sudden realization about a good way to learn English. What did you realize?
- 3. Are you a person who worries a lot? What or who do you worry about most?
- 4. When is the last time you got really angry about something? Did you say something that you regretted?

Vocabulary Preview

A. Idioms and Expressions

Your teacher will give each student one or more strips of paper. Your strip(s) will have an English idiom/expression OR a definition for an idiom/expression. Try to find the student that has your match. When all of the matches have been found, read the strips out loud to see if they all make sense.

B. Matching

Match these words to their correct definitions.

worried sick 1. in a long time a) b) very concerned What's the big deal? 2. c) a realization that something needs to change 3. in ages to do or say something because you care 4. wake-up call (though it might seem the opposite) 5. go behind one's back one's father e) 6. speaking of What's so important about this? f) 7. fly off the handle to do something secretly so that another person doesn't find out 8. have one's best interests at heart h) to have an outburst of anger 9. old man i) on that topic 10. keep an eye on to keep under careful observation i)

The Big Deal: Introduction

In the sixteenth episode of Moving to New York, Eugene chats with his homestay mom. He is not pleased with how she is treating him. She is worried that he doesn't have his priorities right.

Mrs. Case

Eugene

Listening - Gap Fill

Fill in the gaps as you listen. Then read the dialogue with your partner a few times. Take turns being each character. Practice your intonation and pronunciation. Underline or highlight any new words or phrases that you don't understand.

•	Home awfully late, aren't you? I was
	I was just watching a movie with my buddy Carlos.
(It's after midnight. You were supposed to be out for dinner.
	There was a change of plans?
3	You have school in the morning!
	Mrs. Lynn says movies are great for English practice.
(3)	I haven't seen you open a book, Eugene.
	Let's just say I had a
3	Oh really? calls, I talked to your father yesterday.
	My called?
(3)	Actually, I called him. He asked me toyou.
	l can't believe you two!
(A)	Don't We both

Listen Again - Put in Order

Listen to the dialogue again and put the sentences into the correct order by numbering them.

Mrs. Case

Eugene

	My old man called?
	Don't fly off the handle . We both have your best interests at heart .
	Home awfully late, aren't you? I was worried sick.
	lt's after midnight. You were supposed to be out for dinner.
	There was a change of plans. What's the big deal?
	Let's just say I had a wake-up call .
	I can't believe you two went behind my back !
	I was just watching a movie with my buddy Carlos.
	You have school in the morning!
	Mrs. Lynn says movies are great for English practice.
	I haven't seen you open a book in ages , Eugene.
	Oh really? Speaking of calls, I talked to your father yesterday.
45	Actually, I called him. He asked me to keep an eye on you.

Making Predictions

In the next episode, Eugene meets a girl. What do you think will happen? Make two predictions. Discuss your predictions with a partner.

- I think Eugene will be too shy to talk to her.
- I bet Eugene will introduce her to Carlos.

Hint: The title of the next episode is "Say Cheese."
2.

Comprehension Questions

Answer and discuss these questions in pairs or as a class.

1.	How do each of the speakers feel during this conversation?	4.	What does Eugene imply about his methods of learning English?
2.	What concerns does Eugene's homestay mom have?	5.	What reason did Eugene's homestay mom give for calling Eugene's dad?
3.	What does Eugene mean when he says, "I can't believe you two went behind my back"?
V	ocabulary Review
Su	bstitute the idiom or expression with another word or	phras	e.
1.	It's just a scratch. What's(the big deal)	?
2.	I haven't been to a movie(in ages)	·
3.	He's not a true friend if he(talks behind your back)	·
4.	They had to move Grandma to a nursing home. They	(had l	her best interests at heart)
5.	Can you the dog? I ha	ve to t	ake the garbage out.

Spoken English

FRAGMENTS ARE NO BIG DEAL

A fragment is a piece of a whole. A fragmented sentence is a sentence that is missing some important parts. The missing parts may be the subject and the verb! Fragmented sentences are common in everyday spoken English. Practice the examples below out loud with your classmates.

Note:

Do not use incomplete sentences in written English unless you are writing a dialogue.

#	Full Sentence	Fragmented Sentence
1	You are home awfully late, aren't you?	Home awfully late, aren't you?
2	Have you had enough dinner?	Had enough?
3	Are you still there?	You still there? / Still there?
4	Did you learn anything?	Learn anything?
5	Do you need anything?	Need anything?
6	l'll be back in a second.	Back in a sec.

Write Your Own Dialogue

In your notebook, write a new dialogue with a partner. Use idioms and expressions from page 1. Use the same subject ("What's the Big Deal?") but make it an argument between two celebrities. Practice and present the dialogue to your class.

Write a Letter

Write a letter telling a friend or family member that you had a "wake-up call." Tell them what happened and what you're going to change. If possible, try to use a few idioms that you learned from this episode. Write your letter in your notebook or type it on the computer and share it with your teacher.

Keywords

Write your own example sentences using the idioms and expressions you've learned.

What's the big deal?
in ages
wake-up call
go behind one's back
have one's best interests at heart
fly off the handle
keep an eye on someone worried sick speaking of old man

Role-Play

DON'T FLY OFF THE HANDLE!

Work with a partner and role-play the following scenarios. Student B has just discovered what Student A did. Student B (a relative, friend, etc.) is very angry! Student A thinks it's not a big deal.

SCENARIOS FOR STUDENT A

- you crashed into your sibling's car
- you forgot to do your homework
- you ate the last cookie
- you erased an important phone message
- you forgot to call your grandma for her birthday
- you sat on your friend's phone
- you went on a date with your best friend's ex
- you slept in and missed an exam

USEFUL EXPRESSIONS

Student A

- Don't fly off the handle!
- What's the big deal?
- I didn't mean to.
- I'll make it up to you.

Student B

- I can't believe you did this.
- I thought I could trust you.
- You wrecked it!
- You're so irresponsible!

Dialogue Transcript

Read the dialogue with your partner a few times. Take turns being each character. Practice your intonation and pronunciation. Underline or highlight any new words or phrases that you don't understand.

Mrs. Case

ase Eugene

Home awfully late, aren't you? I was worried sick.

I was just watching a movie with my buddy Carlos.

It's after midnight. You were supposed to be out for dinner.

There was a change of plans. What's the big deal?

You have school in the morning!

Mrs. Lynn says movies are great for English practice.

I haven't seen you open a book in ages, Eugene.

Let's just say I had a wake-up call.

Oh really? Speaking of calls, I talked to your father yesterday.

My old man called?

Actually, I called him. He asked me to keep an eye on you.

I can't believe you two went behind my back!

Don't fly off the handle. We both have your best interests at heart.