

Peter's Party

A. Reading

Peter has been cooking in the kitchen for four hours. He and his wife are having guests over for dinner tonight. He has been working hard to prepare the meal. He has prepared an appetizer, a main course, and some salad, and now he is making the dessert. He is making a cake for dessert, and he has been mixing the ingredients for ten minutes. Now he just has to bake it for an hour.

His wife has been cleaning for several hours as well. She has cleaned the bathrooms, the living room, and the front hallway. Now she's cleaning the dining room. She has been dusting the furniture for almost 20 minutes now. When Peter finishes cooking, she's going to help him clean the kitchen.

They have been planning this dinner party all week, but they left all the work until the last minute. They have been working so hard that they are exhausted now. They are both very tired and would rather sleep tonight than have guests over.

Our Basketball Game

A. Reading

It's the championship game. My basketball team is playing against our rival team, the Sharks. We have been playing for one hour so far. We have been getting more and more exhausted, but we're still excited. We have been waiting all year for this day. We have been dreaming about winning the championship. If we win, we'll get a trophy and our photograph in the paper. We have been practicing hard all season. The players on the other team have been as well. The game is close so far. They are only a few points ahead! We have been playing really good defense, but the players on the other team have been scoring more goals. During our breaks, we have been drinking lots of water and eating power bars. We have been discussing how to improve our offensive play with our coach. The Sharks have been strengthening their defense. Our fans have been cheering loudly throughout the game. I think we are going to win this game. We have just been saving our energy for the last round.

I've Been Traveling

A. Reading

I have been traveling around Europe for three months. I have been to Germany, Denmark, Italy, and the Czech Republic. I have been learning to say "hello" in many different languages. I'm in France right now. I have been backpacking around France for three weeks. I have visited Paris, Lyon, and Toulouse. I have seen the Eiffel Tower and Montmartre. I have been sightseeing in the south of France this week. I have been eating very well here. The food is so delicious, and I love the fresh baguettes. I have been buying a baguette every morning for breakfast. I have been staying in the youth hostels because they are cheaper than hotels. I have met lots of other backpackers during my travels. In Toulouse, I met an Australian girl and a Japanese guy in the youth hostel, and we have been traveling together ever since. We have been traveling by train. I will head off to Spain on my own soon. I have been thinking about going surfing.
