B. Possession

In English, an apostrophe is used to show that something belongs to someone. This is called possession. Here are three rules to remember:

1. Add 's to a single noun to show possession.
This is Ringo Starr's drum set.
2. Add ' to a plural noun ending in -s to show possession.
The Beatles' hit is on the radio.
3. Add 's to a singular noun ending in -s.
Our class's nickname is "The Beatlemaniacs."

Now write three sentences that use possession. Use these three nouns: John Lennon, the Beatles, tour bus

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____
