

Frankenstein

Reading

1. In 1817, Mary Shelley, her husband, and her friends went to Switzerland for a holiday. One night, there was a terrible storm. There was a lot of rain, thunder, and lightning. Mary Shelley and her friends could not go outside, so they decided to sit inside and tell ghost stories. Each person told a story, but Mary Shelley could not think of a story to tell.
2. That night, while Mary Shelley was in bed, she thought of a scary story. The next day, she decided to start writing the story down. One year later, when she was 19 years old, she finished writing her story. She called her new book Frankenstein.
3. Many people think Frankenstein is one of the best stories ever written. It is one of the first science fiction books. In the book, a scientist created a man. Then the scientist became afraid of the man he created. The scientist called him a monster. Later, the monster killed the scientist and his family. It is a story about people, science, and responsibility.
4. There have been many movies made about the Frankenstein monster. Most of these movies are very different from the book. While many of the movies are for children, the book by Mary Shelley is for adults.
